Capital Market Forum and Business Sharks Award

The first Capital Market Forum was held on November 25th. The event took place at the Warsaw Stock Exchange and attracted over 300 investors, representatives of companies and speakers. Grupa Azoty was also present to collect the Business Sharks award.

The conference, organised by inwestorzy.tv, was an occasion to meet and exchange experiences with investors, listed companies, business people and institutions associated with the Polish and foreign financial markets. The main partners of the event included WSE-listed Pfeiderer Group, Immobile Group and ABC Data. "We successfully organised the first conference for investors, issuers and the capital market at large. We want to make the Capital Market Forum a strong brand and a regular event offering an opportunity to talk about past periods, share best practices and discuss the problems that affect the Polish capital market," said Tomasz Krawczyk, Vice-President of inwestorzy.tv

During the evening gala, the Business Sharks marking the 25th anniversary of the Warsaw Stock Exchange were handed to winners selected by a jury comprising such capital market experts as Mr Paweł Cymcyk, President of the Association of Brokers and Advisors; Mr Jarosław Dominiak, President of the Association of Retail Investors; Mr Emil Łobodziński, Manager of investment fund company Saturn TFI; Mr Marcin Kuciapski, Stock Broker from the DM BZ WBK Brokerage House, and Mr Mirosław Kachniewski, President of the Polish Association of Listed Companies.

Grupa Azoty S.A. was among the winners of the prize.

"The Management Board and the Investor Relations Team of Grupa Azoty S.A. proved that in their daily business they do not forget to communicate with the media, shareholders, investors and analysts. The Company regularly provides all market participants with exhaustive and reliable information on events taking place at the individual companies of its Group and at the Group level, and communicates such information in a reliable and professional manner, in accordance with the highest standards of capital market communication and corporate governance. By paying due regard to stakeholders, investors, analysts and other stakeholders, the Company contributes to the development of the Polish capital market, raising its prestige and attracting new investors. Grupa Azoty S.A. has demonstrated that it knows very well how to cooperate with investors and indeed with all market participants," said Tomasz Krawczyk, Vice-President of inwestorzy.tv to sum up the award of Business Sharks to the Company.

The award was collected on behalf of Grupa Azoty S.A. by its CEO, Paweł Łapiński.
